

Program overview

Date and Chair	Time and location	Programme
Date and Chair: Monday 3 July Day Chair: Marit van Dijk Subject: introductions	9:30-10:00	Welcome and kick-off
	10:00-11:00	First keynote: Introducing Heritage, Identity and Inclusivity by: Sjoerd-Jeroen Moenandar from RUG
	11:00-11:30	Coffee break
	11:30-12:30	Second keynote: Emotion networking: heritage and citizenship education in the 21st century by: Hester Dibbits from the Reinwardt Academy
	12:30-13:30	Lunch
	13:30-17:00	Workshop: A Living Archive Workshop on participatory local exhibition making by: Hester Dibbits and Bas de Wal from the Reinwardt Academy
	17:30-19:00	Drinks offered by the University of Groningen
Date and Chair: Tuesday 4 July Day chair: Marit van Dijk Subject: Handing over	9:30-10:30	Lecture: Traces of the Dutch history of slavery in the Surinamese and Dutch language by: Jules Rijssen (Imagine IC)
	10:30-11:00	Coffee break
	11:00-12:00	Interactive session: Traces of the Dutch history of slavery in the Surinamese and Dutch language by: Jules Rijssen (Imagine IC)
	12:00-13:00	Lunch
	13:00-14:30	Participant presentations (parallel sessions)
	14:30-15:00	Coffee break
	15:00-18:00	Walk and talk through Leeuwarden
	18:00-19:00	Poetry evening with Valts Ernštreits (Livonia), Sigrid Kingma (Fryslân) and Fieke Gosselaar (Groningen)
Date and Chair: Wednesday 5 July	Symposium: Re:voicing Cultural Landscapes Narrative and Non-narrative traditions across media

Day chair: Sjoerd-Jeroen Moenandar	10:00-11:30	Opening the symposium & keynote: Insiders, outsiders, and re-voicing intangible cultural heritage by: Laura Hodsdon from Falmouth University
	11:30-12:30	Lunch
	12:30-13:30	First session	Minority-majority dynamics in ICH: Identity negotiation in Frisian spoken theatrical events by: Antine Zijlstra & Berber Aardema from RUG
			Giving everyone a voice – creating locative media & audio walks by: Lucy Frears from Falmouth University
	13:30-13:45	Short break
	13:45-14:45	Second session	The visibility and access to the intangible cultural heritage: the Livonian case by: Valts Ernštreits
			The Livonian cultural landscape – the signs and narratives of the Livonianness by: Lolita Ozolina from University of Latvia Livonian Institute (Re:voice)
	14:45-15:15	Coffee break
	15:15-17:30	Parallel workshop 1: Insiders and outsiders researching insiders and outsiders by: Laura Hodson & Lucy Frears Falmouth University	Parallel workshop 2: Giving heritage a form – interactions between tangible and intangible cultural aspects by: Valts Ernštreits from University of Latvia Livonian Institute(Re:voice)
	18:30-21:30	Summer School Dinner
Thursday 6 July Day chair: Sjoerd-Jeroen Moenandar Subject: Heritage and the diaspora	9:30-10:30	Third lecture: What's Cooking? Re-centering the Culinary 'Other' in Cookbooks by: Arththi Sathananthar from RUG
	10:30-11:00	Coffee break
	11:00-12:00	Fourth lecture: Understanding individual differences in heritage language development by: Maki Kubota from UiT
	12:00-13:00	Lunch

	13:00-14:30	Participant presentations (parallel sessions)
	14:30-15:00	Coffee break
	15:00-15:45	Parallel sessions: group is split in half; one half works on an assignment with one lecturer, the other half with the other. After the break, the groups swap. Interactive session with half the group with first lecturer Interactive session with half the group with second lecturer
	15:45-16:00	Short break
	16:00-17:00	Parallel sessions: the group that worked on an assignment with one lecturer now does so with the other, and vice versa. Interactive session with half the group with first lecturer Interactive session with half the group with second lecturer
Friday 7 July	9:30-11:30	Fifth lecture: From Opacity towards transparency by: Cindy Zalm from Museum of world cultures Sixth lecture: Navigating diversity in digital archives: Exploring decolonial perspectives using CLARIAH Media Suite as a case study by: Asli Özgen-Havekotte, (Clariah) Discussion afterwards
Day chair: Marit van Dijk	11:30-12:30	Lunch
Subject: Decolonising knowledge	12:30-15:00	Lecture & consecutive workshop: Connecting through movement met ReDiscoverMe. by: Damar Lamers and Mike Veerman(ReDiscover Me)
	15:00-15:30	Coffee break
	15:30-16:30	Group discussion and closing the summer school