

Faryda joined NN Investment Partners (NN IP) in March 2019. She is leading the active ownership responsibilities within the firm, with a focus on corporate governance and social related topics. Before NN IP, she worked for Sustainalytics where she was managing the corporate governance research team. Prior to Sustainalytics she worked for MN within the Responsible Investment team, and ISS where she was leading the BeNeLux research team.