

Reappearing Ink
Workshop on Early Modern Philosophy and Metaphilosophy
University of Groningen
Oude Boteringestraat, 52, Room Alfa
23-24 March 2023

Thursday 23rd March

9.30-10.00 Welcome. Coffee and registration

Session 1 / Chair: Cesar Reigosa

10.00-10.50 Jonathan Shaheen (Stockholms Universitet)
Stoic Elements in Cavendish's Metaphysics: The Case of Complete Blending as Neo-Chrysippean Mixture

11.00-11.50 Maaïke Kopershoek (University of Groningen)
Émilie du Châtelet and the Nature of Fire

12.00-14.00 Lunch break

Session 2 / Chair: Laura Georgescu

14.00-14.50 Olivia Branscum (University of Oklahoma)
On the Epistemic Benefits of Reading Women Philosophers:
Conway and Cavendish as Cases in Point

15.00-15.50 Steph Marston (Birbeck, University of London)
Anne Conway: How (not) to Be a Monist

15.50-16.15 Coffee break

Session 3 / Chair: Laura Georgescu

16.15-17.05 M. Folescu & Tieying Zhou (University of Missouri)
Reid and Shepherd on Beauty and the Subjectivity of Taste

17.30 Drinks

19.00 Dinner (speakers and chairs)

Friday 24th March

Session 4 / Chair: Maaïke Kopershoek

- 10.00-10.50 Simon Wimmer (TU Dortmund)
Astell on Thinking Matter and Natural Immortality
- 11.00-11.50 Peter West (Northeastern University London) & Manuel Fasko (Universität Basel)
Mary Shepherd on Space and Minds
- 12.00-13.00 Lunch break

Session 5 / Chair: TBA

- 13.00-13.50 Katarina Peixoto (PD-USP-FAPESP-Brasil)
For an Elisabeth's Geistesgeschichte: on the Legacy of Disappearing Ink for a Research Programme to Be Established
- 14.00-14.50 Kylie Shahar (University of Minnesota, Twin Cities)
Catharine Trotter Cockburn: A View of Her Own
- 14.50-15.10 Coffee break

NOTE: Change of building for the keynote session
Room 253, Oude Boteringestraat 38, Theology and Religious Studies

Keynote session / Chair: Anna Ortín Nadal

- 15.10- 17.00 Prof. Jessica Gordon-Roth (University of Minnesota, Twin Cities)
Prof. Nancy Kendrick (Wheaton College, Massachusetts)
Mary Astell as a Virtue Epistemologist

Closing remarks