FACULTY OF ARTS

TEACHING AND EXAMINATION REGULATIONS (OER)

Part B: Bachelor's degree programme in European Languages and Cultures

for academic year 2017-2018

Contents

SECTION 1   GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1.1 – Applicability

These Regulations comprise two parts – Part A and Part B. This degree programme-specific Part B supplements Part A, which contains general stipulations for the teaching and examinations of the Bachelor's degree programmes taught at the Faculty of Arts, hereinafter referred to as the Faculty. Part B contains stipulations that specifically concern the Bachelor's degree programme in European Languages and Cultures.

SECTION 2   QUALIFICATIONS

Article 2.1 – Admission to the programme with profile requirement
Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.1. of Part A of these Teaching and Examination Regulations, the following supplementary requirements apply to this degree programme: N/A.

Article 2.2 – Educational deficiencies

1. Deficiencies in educational qualifications in the subjects listed below may be compensated for by passing the relevant examinations at the level of the VWO final examination to the satisfaction of the Admissions Board: N/A.
2. Under certain circumstances, the Admissions Board can request a university lecturer in the relevant subject to arrange one or more tests.

Article 2.3 Language requirement for foreign certificates

1. Students who have been admitted to a degree programme on the basis of a foreign certificate or degree may be required by the Admissions Board – before registration – to pass a Dutch or English language test, depending on the language of the chosen track, to be administered by an agency stipulated by the Board.
2. The English-taught track will be open to students whose level of English is the equivalent of/comparable to Dutch pre-university level (VWO) English (CEFR level B2; TOEFL iBT 90 IELTS 6.5)
3. The Dutch-taught track will be open to students whose level of Dutch is the equivalent of/comparable to the NT2-II state examination (this is CEFR B2).
4. The Dutch language proficiency requirement can be met by passing the state examination in Dutch as a Second Language (NT2-II).
5. The English language requirement can be met by presenting one of the following pieces of documentary evidence:
   a. a subject certificate for VWO English (mark 6 or higher)
   b. the internet-based TOEFL test (iBT TOEFL, minimum score 90) with a minimum score of 21 on all components
   c. IELTS, Academic Module, with a minimum score of 6.0 on all components
   d. a certificate from the University of Groningen Language Centre, at least B2 CEFR.

Article 2.4 – Starting date

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.7 of Part A, the following additional requirement applies to this degree programme:
Students who have previously been enrolled in this degree programme or who wish to start in a higher year may apply to the Admissions Board for permission to start on a date other than 1 September at the beginning of a block. The Admissions Board will grant permission for an alternative starting date if the student has satisfied the entry requirement for the course units the student wishes to follow.

SECTION 3   CONTENT AND STRUCTURE OF THE DEGREE PROGRAMME

Article 3.1 – Learning outcomes of the degree programme

Description of the Bachelor's level in accordance with the Dublin descriptors	Learning outcomes of the specialization Bachelor's graduates:
1. Knowledge and understanding: Graduates have demonstrated knowledge and understanding in a field of study that builds upon and exceeds their secondary education, and is typically at a level that, whilst supported by advanced textbooks, includes some aspects that will be informed by knowledge of the forefront of their field of study.	1. Have knowledge of European linguistics in a broad sense 2. Have knowledge of a wide range of European literary texts as well as literary history and theory 3. Are able to adequately communicate in a second (foreign) language 2. Are able to develop innovative ideas 3. Are able to select, process and analyse information from a range of sources 4. Are able to identify, formulate and resolve problems 5. Are able to reason in the abstract and analytically and synthesize ideas
3. Making judgements: Graduates have the ability to gather and interpret relevant data (usually within their field of study) to make judgements that include reflection on relevant social, academic or ethical issues.	1. Are able to gather and interpret relevant data in order to form judgements about relevant social, academic or ethical issues 2. Are able to take critical distance
4. Communication: Graduates are able to communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.	1. Are able to motivate and guide others 2. Are able to communicate essential information from their own discipline or field to both experts and non-experts 3. Are able to have constructive discussions with others while respecting diversity 4. Are able to express themselves correctly, carefully and at an academic level both orally and in writing, in Dutch or English and/or the second foreign language (Major language)
5. Learning skills: Graduates have those learning skills that are necessary for students to continue to undertake further study with a high degree of autonomy.	1. Are able to stay up-to-date with developments in their field 2. Are able to plan properly and keep to deadlines 3. Are able to function independently and in a team.

See Appendix 1 for the Matrix of learning outcomes achieved/ course units passed of the degree programme.

Article 3.2 – Language of instruction

1. The degree programme has both Dutch-taught and English-taught variants.
2. Notwithstanding Article 3.2.1, one or more course units in the Dutch-taught part of the programme may be taught in English in line with the University of Groningen Code of Conduct: Languages Used in Teaching and Examinations.
   a. Students with major language English, French, German, Italian, Spanish or Swedish must write their BA thesis in their major language
   b. Students of Russian will write their thesis in Dutch or English
   c. The BA thesis may only be written in a language other than the language of their Major if the student agrees to forfeit the right to have their Major language stated on their degree certificate. In this case the BA thesis may be written in Dutch or English.
   d. The Board of Examiners may grant students permission to write their BA thesis in a language other than is stipulated in Articles 3.2.3 a-c

Article 3.3 – Contact hours

1. The propaedeutic phase of the degree programme comprises a minimum of 480 contact hours.
2. The post-propaedeutic phase of the degree programme comprises a minimum of 360 contact hours a year.
3. The contact hours of the propaedeutic phase (year 1) are divided as follows:

Contact time	Number of contact hours per year
Lectures	84
Seminars	280
Study progress supervision/mentor system/lecturer supervision	31
Exams/assessment incl. feedback session	114
Other regular hours	13
Total	522

SECTION 4   THE PROPAEDEUTIC PHASE OF THE DEGREE PROGRAMME

Article 4.1 – Structure of the propaedeutic phase

1. The propaedeutic phase comprises the following course units with their related student workloads:

No.	Course unit	Student workload in ECTS
1	Language 1a*	5
2	Studying Europe	5
3	Europe: Language and Society	5
4	Language 1b*	5
5	Europe: Culture and Literature	5
6	Europe: Politics and Society	5
7	Language 2a*	5
8	Profile 1	5
9	Elective	10 or 5+5
10	Language 2b*	5
11	Profile 2	5

All course units are listed in the online course catalogue OCASYS.

*Language 1 and 2 refer to the chosen single major language (German, French, English, Russian, Italian, Swedish or Spanish). Students that can prove that they already master the language and the academic skills at the required level may be exempted from Language 1a and Language 1b by the Exam Committee. In case of Plus languages only applicable to Language Plus 1a and Language Plus 1b.
Profile 1 and 2 refer to the chosen single profile of the student (Culture and Literature, Language and Society or Politics and Society)
The electives are listed under 6.3

2. The modes of instruction and assessment for the course units listed above are set out in the syllabus for each individual course unit and the Assessment Plan for the degree programme.

Article 4.2 – Participation in the propaedeutic phase

With regard to the following course units, successful participation in the activities of the course unit as well as satisfying the attendance requirement of 80% is considered to mean passing the relevant examination: N/A.

SECTION 5   THE POST-PROPAEDEUTIC PHASE OF THE DEGREE PROGRAMME

Article 5.1a – Structure of the post-propaedeutic phase

1. The post-propaedeutic phase comprises the following course units with their related student workloads:

No.	Course unit	Student workload in ECTS
	2nd year:
12	Language 3a	5
13	Profile seminar 3	5
14	Profile seminar 4	5
	Elective (course unit 2)	10 or 5+5
15	Language 3b	5
16	Language-specific course unit 1 CL	5
17	Language-specific course unit 1 LS	5
18	Language-specific course unit 1 PS	5
19	Profile Seminar 5
	Elective (course unit 3)	10 or 5+5
	3rd year (not yet offered in 2017-2018):
	Stay abroad	25
20	Advanced proficiency course unit in the language of the Major	5
21	Profile seminar 6	5
22	Profile seminar 7	5
23	Language-specific course unit 2 CL*	5
24	Language-specific course unit 2 LS*	5
25	Language-specific course unit 2 PS*	5
26	Final-year project (BA thesis)	10

The specific contents of all course units are listed in the online course catalogue OCASYS.
*Of these three, two must be chosen: one in accordance with the student's chosen profile, and the other one is free.

2. The BA thesis written in the Major language is part of the language proficiency component of the programme (95 ECTS) and is therefore a compulsory and necessary course unit that must be completed in order to have the major language stated on the Diploma Supplement. See Article 3.2.3 for the Language of Instruction of the BA Thesis.

3. When applying for approval of the choice of course units abroad as a Faculty Minor, students must bear in mind the Master's programme they plan to follow after the Bachelor's phase, for example a Master of Arts in Teaching or a Master's programme at a different institution. The 25 ECTS that will be followed abroad will be supplemented by the 5 ECTS Advanced proficiency course unit, supervised from the UG (see also the Stay Abroad Memo, Appendix 3) as an integral part of the Faculty Minor.
4. Depending on the Master's programme that students wish to follow (e.g. in Teaching or at a different institution), additional requirements may apply to the final-year project, such as the language in which it must be written.
5. Students who decide in their third year not to comply with the requirements regarding language proficiency also forfeit the right to have their Major language stated on the Diploma Supplement to the ETC Bachelor's degree certificate. This means that they no longer satisfy the language proficiency requirements that apply to admission to the Master of Arts in Teaching programme.
6. The modes of instruction and assessment for the course units listed above are set out in the syllabus for each individual course unit and the Assessment Plan for the degree programme, respectively.

Article 5.1b – Structure of the old post-propaedeutic phase, third year for students that started before 2016-2017

7. The post-propaedeutic phase comprises the following course units with their related student workloads:

No.	Course unit	Student workload in ECTS
	Electives abroad / Subsidiary	25
27	Advanced proficiency course unit in the language of the Major	5
28	Profile seminar 3 (or short vocational placement)	10
29	Language-specific course unit 2	10 or 5+5
30§	Final-year project (BA thesis)	10

All course units are listed in the online course catalogue OCASYS. As of 2018/2019, these courses will not be offered any more and may be replaced by equivalent courses of the program under 5.1a.1.

8. The BA thesis written in the Major language is part of the language proficiency component of the programme (90 ECTS) and is therefore a compulsory and necessary course unit that must be completed in order to have the major language stated on the Diploma Supplement. See Article 3.2.3 for the Language of Instruction of the BA Thesis.
9. When applying for approval of the choice of course units abroad, students must bear in mind the Master's programme they plan to follow after the Bachelor's phase, for example a Master of Arts in Teaching or a Master's programme at a different institution. The 25 ECTS that will be followed abroad will be supplemented by the 5 ECTS Advanced proficiency course unit, supervised from the UG (see also the Stay Abroad Memo, Appendix 3).
10. Depending on the Master's programme that students wish to follow (e.g. in Teaching or at a different institution), additional requirements may apply to the final-year project, such as the language in which it must be written.
11. Students who decide in their third year not to comply with the requirements regarding language proficiency also forfeit the right to have their Major language stated on the Diploma Supplement to the ETC Bachelor's degree certificate. This means that they no longer satisfy the language proficiency requirements that apply to admission to the Master of Arts in Teaching programme.
12. The modes of instruction and assessment for the course units listed above are set out in the syllabus for each individual course unit and the Assessment Plan for the degree programme, respectively.

Article 5.3 – Open Degree Programme in European Languages and Cultures

Students that do not opt for a Stay Abroad (25 ECTS) and Advanced Proficiency (5 ECTS) in their 3rd year, but take a Faculty Minor (30 ECTS) instead, can choose an Open Degree Programme in European Languages and Cultures. Students who follow the ETC Open Degree Programme do not have the right to have the language of their Major stated on the Diploma Supplement of the Bachelor's degree certificate. Before students start the third year of the Open Degree Programme, they must have their programme approved by the Board of Examiners, which will check its overall coherence and academic level. The Open Degree Programme in European Languages and Cultures for students who started their programme in 2016/17 or later comprises the following course units:

No.	Course unit	Student workload in ECTS
1	Language 1a	5
2	Studying Europe	5
3	Europe: Language and Society	5
4	Language 1b	5
5	Europe: Culture and Literature	5
6	Europe: Politics and Society	5
7	Language 2a	5
8	Profile 1	5
9	Elective	10 or 5+5
10	Language 2b	5
11	Profile 2	5
12	Language 3a	5
13	Profile seminar 3	5
14	Profile seminar 4	5
	Elective (course unit 2)	10 or 5+5
15	Language 3b	5
16	Language-specific course unit 1 CL	5
17	Language-specific course unit 1 LS	5
18	Language-specific course unit 1 PS	5
	Elective (course unit 3)	10 or 5+5
	Faculty Minor	30
20	Profile seminar 5	5
21	Profile seminar 6	5
22	Profile seminar 7	5
23	Language-specific course unit 2 CL*	5
24	Language-specific course unit 2 LS*	5
25	Language-specific course unit 2 PS*	5
26	Final-year project (BA thesis)	10

*Of these three, two must be chosen: one in accordance with the student's chosen profile, and the other one is free.
 Within the ETC Open Degree Programme, the final-year project (Bachelor's thesis) does not need to be written in the chosen language of the Major (French, German, Italian, Spanish or Swedish), but may be in English or Dutch. If Russian is the language of the Major, the Bachelor's thesis must be written in English or Dutch, unless the Board of Examiners has given permission for it to be written in Russian.

SECTION 6   MINORS

Article 6.1 – Faculty Minor

For students who started the degree programme before September 2016
The degree programme has the following Faculty Minors, from which the student must choose one:

SECTION 7   TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS OF THE DEGREE PROGRAMME

Article 7.1 – Compulsory order

The course units listed below and their related examinations may only be taken after the examinations for the associated course units have been passed, or, if explicitly stated, the course units have been satisfactorily followed – unless the Board of Examiners has made a different decision in a particular case:

No.	Course unit	No.	After passing course unit(s)
7	Language proficiency course unit 2a	4	Language proficiency course unit 1b
12	Language proficiency course unit 3a	10	Language proficiency course unit 2b
23/ 24/ 25	Language-specific course unit 2	13	The entire language proficiency track including Language proficiency 3b
		16/ 17/ 18	Language specific course unit 1
26	Final-year project (BA thesis)	13	The entire langue proficiency track including Language proficiency 3b
		14	Profile seminars 3 + 4
		16 /	Language-specific course unit 1
		17 18	All of these course units must be completed.

*If the BA-thesis will be written in the Major language.
Remark: students from cohort 2016-2017 or earlier planning a stay abroad, look for regulations in attachment 3.

SECTION 8   TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 8.1 – Amendments

1.   Any amendments to Part A of these Regulations will, after due consultation with and if necessary upon the approval of the Faculty Council, be confirmed by the Faculty Board in a separate decree.
2.   Any amendments to Part B of these Regulations will, after due consultation with the Programme Committee and the Faculty Council and if necessary upon the approval of the Faculty Council, be confirmed by the Faculty Board in a separate decree.
3.   Any amendments to these Regulations will not apply to the current academic year, unless it may reasonably be assumed that the amendment in question will not harm the interests of students.

4. In addition, an amendment may not influence any other decision concerning a student taken by the Board of Examiners under these Regulations to the disadvantage of students.

Article 8.2 – Publication

1. The Faculty Board will duly publish these Regulations, the Rules and Regulations formulated by the Board of Examiners, and any amendments to these documents.
2. Copies of the documents referred to in Article 8.2.1 are available from the Faculty Office. These documents can also be found on the Faculty website via 'My University'.

Article 8.3 – Date of commencement

These Regulations will take effect on 1 September 2017.

As decreed by the Faculty Board on 17 April 2018.
