for the academic year 2019-2020

Contents

1. General provisions

2. Admission

3. Content and structure of the degree programme

4. Tests and examinations of the degree programme

5. Transitional and final provisions

Section 1   General provisions

Article 1.1 – Applicability

These Regulations comprise two parts – Part A and Part B. This is the degree programme-specific Part B to complement Part A, which contains general provisions which apply to the teaching, examinations and final assessments of the Master's degree programmes provided by the Faculty of Arts, hereinafter referred to as the Faculty. Part B contains stipulations that specifically concern the Master's degree programme in Middle Eastern Studies.

Section 2 – Admission

Article 2.1 – Entry requirements

1. Students with a Dutch or foreign certificate of higher education that indicates that they have knowledge and understanding of, and subject-specific skills in, Middle Eastern Studies at an academic Bachelor's level will be admitted to the degree programme.
2. Holders of a certificate from the Bachelor's degree programme in Middle Eastern Studies from the University of Groningen or from another Dutch university are expected to have the knowledge, understanding and skills listed in Article 2.1.1 and will be admitted to the degree programme on that basis.
3. Holders of a certificate from a Bachelor's degree programme from the Faculty of Arts of the University of Groningen other than that listed in Article 2.1.2, who have completed a pre-Master's Minor in Middle-Eastern Studies, are expected to have the knowledge, understanding and skills listed in Article 2.1.1 and will be admitted to the degree programme on that basis.
4. If a student does not have a Bachelor's degree, the Admissions Board is responsible for investigating whether the candidate can be admitted on basis of their knowledge, understanding and general level equivalent to that of a Bachelor's degree.

Article 2.2 – Language requirement for foreign certificates

1. Students who have been admitted to the degree programme on the basis of a foreign certificate or degree may be required by the Board of Examiners to pass an English language test before registration, to be held by an agency stipulated by the Board of Examiners.
2. The English language proficiency requirement can be met by passing an examination in English at the level of the VWO final exam or by passing the TOEFL iBT with a score of at least 90 (with a minimum score of 21 on each individual part) or an IELTS score of 6.5 (with a minimum score of 6.0 on each individual part).

Article 2.3 Admission to the Master's tracks

In addition to the provisions of Article 2.1, the following admission requirements apply to the various tracks in this Master's degree programme:

A Bachelor's degree in Middle Eastern Studies (UG), History or International Relations/International Organization ensures no-threshold access to this Master's degree programme.
Holders of an academic Bachelor's degree in a field relevant to the Master's degree programme (such as Religious Studies, Political Science, Sociology, Anthropology, Law, Philosophy, Cultural Studies or Media Studies) may be admitted upon explicit approval of the Admissions Board of the degree programme. The Admissions Board will assess whether the programme followed and the level of the Bachelor's degree obtained are sufficient in order to be able to participate in the Master's degree programme in Middle Eastern Studies.
