OSCG

UG-wide community that brings together staff, and provides advice, support, and training for those who want to engage in open science.

Target group

Researchers, students, and support staff of all UG faculties who are open and curious with regards to responsible research practices.

“‘Oil stain’ strategy” ~ Maurits Masselink

OSCG

Mission

- To improve the quality of scientific practice of the UG/UMCG, and the reliability of its results.
- Meeting the increasing demand for training and support in the adoption of reproducible and responsible science practices within the UG/UMCG.
- Closing the gap between research and society.

Do you want to help in realizing the OSCG?

So far, we have realized:

Stakeholders, support, and collaborators

- (Medical) University Library
- Plan S officers (Giulia Trentacosti & Peter Braun)
- Project Open Access
- Research Support BSS (Jacob Jolij)
- Research support UMCG (Myke Mol & Salome Scholtens)
- Data federation hub (Frank Schroër)
- UKB ORCID-campagne (Ane van der Leij)

So far, we have realized:

Outreach

- Website: openscience-groningen.nl
- Twitter: @OSCGroningen
- OSCG Newsletter
- Banner, flyers & stickers

Teaching

- Professional Learning Community (PLC) on Open Science

Publicity

- DFH Interview “Open Science: transparency above all else”
- UK Interview “The cheerleaders of science”

... and we kick-started some member initiatives!

Kick-starting member initiatives

Example:

Daan Ornée started organizing Open Science journal club meetings called “ReproducibiliTea” @GroningenTea

- Started in April this year
- Organized 13 meetings
- Topics: Rmarkdown, p-hacking, pre-regs
- Output: 3 blogs, and counting

Up next:

Thursday, October 24th, 10.00 – 11.00.

Location: UMCG, Triade building entrance 24, room k1.25
