

Short Biography Prof.Dr.Dr. Aurelia Colombi Ciacchi

Prof. Dr. Dr. Aurelia Colombi Ciacchi holds the Endowed Chair Law and Governance at Groningen University since October 2010. She is one of the two Academic Directors of the Groningen Centre for Law and Governance, and one of the three Directors of the Netherlands Institute for Law and Governance. She graduated in Law at the University of Trieste (1994) and Kiel (1997). She received her first PhD in comparative law in Italy and her second PhD in Germany (Bucerius Law School Hamburg, 2004, summa cum laude). She was a research fellow at the universities of Kiel and Bremen and a Marie Curie Fellow at the University of Oxford. She taught comparative law and European and international private law at the University of Bremen and the Hanse Law School. Many of her publications deal with the application of fundamental rights in the adjudication of private litigations. She wrote two comparative law monographs and co-edited six books, of which three were published by Cambridge University Press and one by Oxford University Press.