

Short Biography Prof. Dr. Christoph Busch

Prof. Dr. Christoph Busch holds the Chair of Civil Law, Commercial and Business Law, European and International Private Law at the EBS Universität für Wirtschaft und Recht in Wiesbaden, Germany. He graduated in Law from the University of Paris-Nanterre (Maîtrise en Droit, 2000) and the University of Münster (2002). He received his Dr. iuris from Bielefeld University (2007) for a dissertation on the interplay between contract law and unfair commercial practices law in the field of pre-contractual information duties. Christoph Busch was a research fellow at the University of Turin in the project 'Uniform Terminology for European Private Law' and has worked as a senior researcher at the European Legal Studies Institute at the University of Osnabrück where he received his post-doctoral degree (Habilitation) in 2012 for a thesis on the interplay between market regulation, contract law and service standards in the field of architectural services. Christoph Busch is secretary of the European Research Group on the Existing EC Private Law (Acquis Group) and co-editor of the Journal of European Market and Consumer Law published quarterly by Springer / Verlag Österreich. His fields of research cover European private law, conflict of laws, unfair commercial practices law and construction law.