

Short Biography Prof.Dr. Peter Rott

Peter Rott is Associate Professor in European Private Law at the University of Copenhagen. He graduated as a fully qualified German lawyer in 1996 and obtained his doctorate from the University of Erlangen, Germany, in 2001. Peter has worked in academia ever since, amongst other as a lecturer at the University of Sheffield from 2000 to 2003 and as Associate Professor at the University of Bremen from 2003 to 2010 when he joined the University of Copenhagen. He has published widely in the area of European private law with a focus on consumer law in its broadest sense, including the core areas of contract and tort law and also the law of financial services.

Peter works in a number of international research networks such as the Trento/Turin project "The Common Core of European Private Law" and the Walter van Gerven Ius Commune project. He is a board member of the International Association of Consumer Law, co-editor of the German consumer law journal Verbraucher und Recht and a member of the editorial board of the Journal of Consumer Policy. He has also frequently contributed as a consumer or contract law expert to intradisciplinary conferences, for example, on services of general interest or on copyright.
