

TOWARDS HORIZON 2020: PUBLIC INTERESTS AND PRIVATE RELATIONSHIPS
2nd Multi-disciplinary Workshop of the PIPR programme

Thursday, 12 December 2013, Het Kasteel (Melkweg 1), room 1.12

- 9:00 Welcome Words (Fokko Oldenhuis)
- 9:05 Introduction (Aurelia Colombi Ciacchi)
- 9:15 Antenor Hallo de Wolf, Human Rights and the Regulation of Privatised Essential Services
- 9:45 Monika Ambrus, Towards a Theoretical Model of Legitimate Global Judicial Review – Combining the Past with the Future
- 10:15 Wilbert Kolkman, To a Better Administration of Justice: Examining the Role of Courts and Civil Law Notaries in Certain Family Law Matters
- 10:45 Coffee break
- 11:00 Hanny Schutte-Veenstra, Cross-Border Conversion of Companies
- 11:30 Miriam Nethe, Vereffeningsperikelen
- 12:00 Internationaal publiceren: Yes We Can! (Fokko Oldenhuis)
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 Michel Vols, Housing Associations Tackling Anti-Social Behaviour
- 14:00 Joop Houtman, NWO Funding Opportunities
- 14:30 Geert Jan Arends, How to be Successful under Horizon 2020?
- 15:30 Coffee break
- 15:45 Bettina Zijlstra, EU Funding for Collaborative Research Projects: Challenges and Opportunities
- 16:15 Jilles Hazenberg and Hanri Mostert, One Idea for an Interdisciplinary EU Project: Unjust Appropriation of Natural Resources
- 16:30 Adam McCann, Another Idea for an Interdisciplinary EU Project: Medical Behaviour that Potentially Shortens Life
- 17:00 Towards Horizon 2020: Concluding Remarks
- 17:30 Drinks