

Annex to the Teaching and Examination Regulations English-taught Master's degree programmes Law 2020-2021

Article 1 – Provisional admission

1. At the request of a candidate who is preparing for the final examination of the Bachelor's degree programme, the Admissions Board can decide to provisionally admit a student to the programme, provided:
 - s/he still has to complete a joint maximum course load of 15 ECTS of that Bachelor's degree programme.
 - s/he has successfully completed the bachelor-concluding course unit. The provisional admission will be repealed in case admission as stated in Art. 2.1 and 2.2 TER English-taught Master's degree programmes Law 2020-2021 has not been obtained within two adjacent semesters. The Master's degree cannot be conferred if the final examination of the Bachelor's degree programme has not been successfully completed.
2. At the request of a candidate who is registered in a pre-Master's programme at the Faculty of Law, the Admission Board can decide to provisionally admit a student to the Master's programme linked to the pre-Master's programme, provided the student only has to successfully complete a joint maximum course load of 15 ECTS of that pre-Master's programme. The Master's degree cannot be conferred if the full pre-Master's programme has not been successfully completed.
3. The provisional admission as arranged for in Art. 1.1 is only possible in the academic year 2020-2021. The regular entry moments apply.

Article 2 – Certified copies

1. To gain admission as arranged for in Article 1, students must provide formal proof of their deficiency through certified copies of their Bachelor university.
2. Students registered in a bachelor or pre/Master's programme at the Faculty of Law in Groningen can replace the certified copies mentioned in article 2.1 by an approved list of courses in Progress.
