

Morning

Time	Upstairs	Downstairs
9h30–10h00	(Chair: Alexander Martin) Fuller Labels and othering: Linguistically patrolling the borders of belonging	(Chair: Max Reuvers) Vriesendorp Macro, meso and micro approaches to queer linguistics: The case of die/diens and hen/hun
10h00–10h30	Pinget Regionale variatie in de uitspraak van (w): Een sociofonetische studie	Lukač & Bradley Effects of L1 and social attitudes toward gender-fair English
10h30–11h00	Cleeren, Marzo & Grondelaers Does the shtyle spread across generations? The lifespan of urban social meaning	Chojnicka Global LGBTQ+ sociolect in Polish transition discourses
11h00–11h25	Coffee break
11h30–12h10	Reuvers Regenboogdwang en transgenderpropaganda: Discoursen over transgenderrechten in de Nederlandse politiek (Chair: Janet Fuller)
12h10–12h15	Room change
12h15–12h55	Poster session A
	De Tier, Depuyt & de Does Zeeuwse stramielen in de Database van de Zuidelijk-Nederlandse dialecten (DSDD): Integratie van een alfabetisch dialectwoordenboek in een conceptgebaseerde database Cristiano & Knooihuizen Methods we choose, conclusions we draw: Operationalizing categorical and continuous /s/ variants in Neapolitan regional Italian	Pabst The role of investment in the use of complementizer (that): Evidence from Northern Maine Nijhuis & van Hout Dialect diversity in the former Zuiderzee area: The linguistic configuration of mainland and sea
12h55–13h40	Poster session B
	Salehi Testing the mutual intelligibility of Azeri in Iran and the Republic of Azerbaijan: Implications for language policy and language planning Pinget & Voeten Quantitative perspectives on the perception of regional variation: A perceptual-dialectological study of Frisian	Alberts When Words Fail: Glossolalia among Multilingual Christians in The Netherlands Dudink & Vriesendorp Variation in /s/ in queer and non-queer female speakers of L1 Dutch and L2 English

Lunch will be served (upstairs) between 12h30 and 13h30, allowing both presenters and attendees to get some food and still have time to walk around and visit posters.

Afternoon

Time	Upstairs	Downstairs
13h40–13h45	Room change
13h45–14h25	Steele & ten Thije The use of receptive multilingualism in discursive interculturalities at Dutch universities (Chair: Aurélie Joubert)
14h25–14h30	Room change
14h30–15h00	(Chair: Remco Knooihuizen) Doreleijers, Cornips & Swaneberg Verantwoord labelen in de sociolinguïstiek: Uitdagingen in de beschrijving van talige jeugdpraktijken	(Chair: Hedwig Sekeres) Fuller & Joubert As the plans stand, the nuance seems to be lacking: Language politics and ideologies in higher education in the Netherlands
15h00–15h30	Martin, Abbou, Copot & Burnett Socio-pragmatic microvariation: The social meaning of variable liaison in France and Québec	Wille & Kusters Tweetalig onderwijs met een gebarentaal
15h30–16h00	Coffee break
16h00–16h40	Truan Critically examining what being a heritage language user means: Insights from a collaboration with the French Institute in the Netherlands (Chair: Morana Lukač)
16h40–16h45	Room change
16h45–17h15	(Chair: Joanna Chojnicka) Renzel & De Vogelaer Acquiring regional and national stereotypes: Language attitudes of children and adolescents in the Dutch-German border region	(Chair: Charlotte Gooskens) Vervaeke & Ghyselen Naar pluricentrische typologieën met een solide perceptuele onderbouwing: Een nieuwe tool om pluricentrisch bewustzijn systematisch en taalafhankelijk te bevragen
17h15–17h45	Simonet Taalvariatie en/of taalstandaardisatie? Inzichten uit verschillende tekstgenres uit de late zestiende-eeuwse Zuidelijke Nederlanden
17h45–18h00	Closing remarks	